Appropriate dress is required in all departments. Please ask the volunteer coordinator should you have any specific questions. Below are the basic expectations:

For volunteers younger than 18 years of age must have an adult present during their time on our campus. Volunteers under the age of 18, without a parent or guardian over the age of 18 with them, will be sent home.

For groups with volunteers younger than 18 years of age, you must have one adult chaperone for each 5 youth volunteers. If this ratio is not maintained the group will be asked to reschedule their experience to a later date when the ratio can be maintained.

Kitchen volunteers must wear long pants, have closed toed shoes and must wear short sleeved shirts. No tank tops. All clothing should fit appropriately and not have hanging straps or other pieces that could get caught in moving machinery.
